9th Annual Harbor Town Dog Show & Auction "Who Let the Dogs Out?"

Doggies were on their best behavior for Harbor Town's 9th Annual Dog Show & Auction. The show was presented by Top Dog Sponsor Downtown Animal Hospital in Harbor Town on November 9th. Puppies led their owners around the arena while they strutted their stuff in sexiest walk and silly pet tricks. If the dogs forgot the routine the owners did the tricks for them. The weather was perfect, the crowd was in a great mood. Delicious food and interesting vendors attracted people to their booths. What a wonderful family day and get together with friends and neighbors it turned out to be. Let's not forget all of the money that was raised for the Humane Society of Memphis & Shelby County. Kym Clark (Channel 5) did a fabulous job emceeing. This was Pam Mackey's fourth year to chair and Dr. Jodi Rump's first year to co-chair this event. All of the hard-working sponsors, vendors, judges and volunteers made this show one of the greatest shows so far. What a great way to have family fun, foster community spirit and raise very much needed money for a wonderful cause. (More photos, sponsor listings and thank you's on page 9.)

Harbor Town Gets Involved

A huge thanks to Carlene Spence and Cindy Barnett for a fantastic First Annual Yard Sale! Over $300 was raised in the inaugural year and the proceeds went to Bridges, Inc. In addition, the Maria Montessori School would like to extend a thank you to the Harbor Town residents who donated some miscellaneous items to the school after the yard sale. They were able to use most of the items and they appreciate being included.
